

I urge you to vote on June 2nd to retain the existing ownership rules for media companies. I believe it is in the public's best interests to prohibit further consolidation.